

Dear Sir or Madam,

My name is Jacquelyn Lannutti and I am raising money for the Susan G. Komen Foundation, a global leader in the fight against breast cancer. Nearly one in eight women will be diagnosed with breast cancer at some point in their lives. Almost everyone knows someone who has beat, is suffering from, or has lost their life to breast cancer. We are, however, making great strides. With nearly 75,000 volunteers nation wide, the Susan B. Komen Foundation has raised nearly $750 million for breast cancer research since its establishment in 1982.

Every May, the Susan G. Komen Foundation hosts a "Race for the Cure." It is anticipated that in 2006, 1.4 million people will participate in the 5K tour in over 100 cities across the US. In 2005, I completed the "Race for the Cure" for the first time. It was a life changing experience. A sea of people covered the Art Museum grounds in Philadelphia, many bearing t-shirts or signs telling who they were walking for. Some were walking for sisters; others, for mothers. Friends, grandmothers, cousins...they were all represented. I was walking for my aunt, Dorothy Detweiler.

This year, I will be walking again in my aunt's memory. To raise money for the walk, I am selling champagne flutes with "Hope" painted on one side of the glass, and the pink ribbon on the other. In addition, each glass has a sterling silver pink ribbon charm dangling from the stem. All proceeds raised from the sale will be donated to the Komen Foundation in my Aunt Dot's name. The prices for the glasses are as follows:

Single - $10.00
Set of 2- $15.00
Set of 4 - $25.00

I will ship internationally although prices do not include shipping.
Free pick up available in Norristown, Downingtown, or at Drexel University.

If you would like to sponsor me by purchasing a champagne flute, please fill out the attached sheet or order online by sending your request to PinkRibbonGlasses@yahoo.com. All checks can be made out to Jacquelyn Lannutti, as I will make on large donation check for the race. I ask you to please pass around this letter and order form to your family members, friends, and co-workers. More information about my campaign is available at my website, <http://www.pinkribbonglasses.com>.

Thank you for your support. Together, we can make a difference.

Sincerely,

Jacquelyn Lannutti
